Porto - The City

Time has seemingly failed to touch some of the hidden corners of Porto, with many of its typical winding alleys full of shops and restaurants looking like a scene straight out of a medieval history book. The city is so soaked in the past that the historic area of Ribeira has been deemed a UNESCO World Heritage site.

Considering the backdrop of wrought-iron balconies full of flowers, the daily washing, and an array of fresh white and blue 'azulejos' tiles, you will have the perfect city for aimless wandering. However, the city does have a few key landmarks that are worth a visit, including the elaborately decorated Palácio da Bolsa (the Stock Exchange Palace), the medieval Cathedral, and The Clérigos Tower.

The other big draw for tourists is the tour of the Porto wine cellars at Vila Nova de Gaia on the other side of the Douro River.

The surrounding suburbs of the city are also compelling: Matosinhos offers great seafood eateries and small beaches stretching down the coastline. Foz do Douro is known as the wealthier area, with nightclubs and restaurants just 5 kilometres northwest of Porto, while Amarantes, a small northern town over the Tâmega River, has everything to win your heart: a preserved historic centre, charming architecture, and the warmth of its inhabitants.

Fado Coimbra

Fado ao Centro

Since the foundation of our cultural project, we have always nurtured the desire to share this passion with everyone who not only wants to listen to Coimbra Fado but also wishes to practice it.

The creation of the Escola de Música do Fado ao Centro (Fado ao Centro Music School) was always a dream of ours — one we fulfilled in 2013. Since then, the school has grown significantly, both in the number of students and in remarkable artistic achievements.

We are proud that, over time, new Fado talents from Coimbra have emerged, becoming recognised artists who now perform at various events on prominent stages throughout Portugal.

A key part of our school is the recently founded Fado ao Centro Instrument-Making Workshop, which offers courses in the construction of string instruments.

The high demand for these workshops demonstrates the success of this new initiative within the Fado ao Centro Music School, which continues to grow rapidly.

Aqueduct of Silver Water (Aqueduto da Água de Prata):

- Built in the 16th century to supply water to the city, this aqueduct extends for several kilometers. Its arches create a picturesque backdrop as they wind through the city and surrounding countryside.

Megalithic Sites:

- Just outside Évora, you can visit several ancient megalithic sites, such as the Alendres Cromlech, a prehistoric stone circle older than Stonehenge, and the Anta Grande do Zambujeiro, a large dolmen used for burial purposes.

Évora Museum (Museu de Évora):

- Housed in a former bishop's palace, the museum showcases a vast collection of artifacts, including Roman relics, medieval art, and Portuguese paintings from the 16th to the 18th centuries.

Local Cuisine

Évora is known for its delicious Alentejan cuisine, which features rich flavors and locally sourced ingredients. Traditional dishes include:

- Açorda Alentejana: A flavorful bread soup made with garlic, coriander, olive oil, and poached eggs.
- Migas: A dish made from leftover bread, flavored with garlic and often served with pork or lamb.
- Ensopado de Borrego: A hearty lamb stew.
- Queijadas de Évora: Sweet cheese tarts that are a local specialty.

Tips for Visitors

Explore the City of Seven Hills: Portugal's Capital, Lisbon

You'll spend the last two days of your 10-day tour in the vibrant capital city. After checking into your accommodation, your stomach will probably be growling. At the Time Out Market by the Tagus River, you can indulge in a delicious feast. Just like at the start of your trip in Porto, the architect Gustav Eiffel also left his mark in Lisbon with a landmark. The Elevador de Santa Justa is definitely worth a visit. Lisbon - The City

Lisbon's heart lies beside the river, even if the city has grown in all directions. Sit down at a pavement cafe on Rossio Square and you will see the Baixa, the flat city centre that dates from the 18th century, between yourself and the river bank. Look up in one direction and you will see the São Jorge castle on the top of a hill. Look in the other direction and you will see the ruin of the Carmo Church on another hill. Walk, or take a tram to one of them and you will discover the quarters of old Lisbon, most of them with a magnificent view of the rest of the city and the river.

Wander north from Rossio, you will soon end up on a stately 19th century avenue, in the part of the city which is still called "Avenidas Novas". Further north, the buildings become really new, with the city's two large football grounds, Luz and Alvalade, and, lastly, the airport which is twenty traffic-jam-free minutes in a car from Rossio. Most of the best sights, restaurants and nightlife are situated along the river. Shopping is good along the Avenidas Novas, but otherwise the rule is to keep close to the river to get the best out of your visit.
